The festivities Sunday will include an open house of both church and parsonage from 1:00-2:30 p.m. and again at 3:30-4:30 p.m. Guest speaker at the 2:30 p.m. service will be Dr. Lawrence Siersback, Secretary of the district, as well as Pastor of St. Mary's Lutheran Church of Kenosha. The afternoon's activities are open to the public. Emphasis will be on the tours beginning at 2:30 p.m. "One of the big reasons for having Allendale day each year is to thoroughly acquaint our friends with facilities and the program for our boys," said William D. Cox, general chair-

Sheriff Larson Promotes McCormick to Sergeant

Sheriff Charles E. Larson has announced the appointment of Deputy William Dan McCormick to the rank of Sergeant. McCormick has been in the Sheriff's office for a period of four years and had been assigned to investigation.

He has recently graduated from The Keeler Polygraph Institute in Keeler where he studied for six weeks. He was trained to administer and translate the results obtained from a polygraph examination.

He also studied psychology of human motivation and its application in interviews and interrogation of suspects and witnesses.

Although polygraph results are not acceptable in every court of law, the information obtained from such examination is frequently used to support alleged accusation in a crime or criminal activity. The polygraph has become standard equipment in most police organizations throughout this country.

"Lie Detector" has been in use in the Sheriff's Office for several years. The facilities of the instrument and an examiner are available to all law enforcement agencies of Lake County. The polygraph was donated to Lake County by Mr. F. Ward Just, owner of the Waukegan News-Sun. Larson was the first member of the office who was trained to operate the instrument and graduated from the same school

RALPH GERRARD, development specialist from NI-Gas, speaker at the conference.

NI-Gas Names Speakers

Leaders in business, industry and all phases of economic growth will take part in the community development conference scheduled for Thursday, Sept. 26, at Pheasant Run Lodge & Country Club on Route 64, near St. Charles.

The conference is sponsored by Northern Illinois Gas Company. About 200 communities are expected to be represented at the all-day conference.

The guests will hear speeches from recognized development experts and be able to take part in a question-answer session where, first-hand, they can learn of new approaches to solving community growth and prosperity problems. The day-long affair will include a luncheon and dinner program.

Highlighting the day will be the talks by Dr. Howard Roepke and Dr. Jerome Fellman, both of the department of geography, University of Illinois; Maurice Fulton, The Funtus Company, world-wide location consultants; Gene Graves, director of the State Board of Economic Development; Gene Cernak, industrial specialist for the Chicago & North Western Railroad; and Geo. Phillips, director of management research, Armour Research Foundation, Illinois Institute of Technology.

The conference is open to the public. Persons desiring further information should contact J. W. Craig, NI-Gas district superintendent, at 459-2200, Crystal Lake.

We Dropped a Name

In the account of the Court of Honor held last Saturday at Channel Lake by Troop 86, one boy's name was omitted from the list of those receiving merit badges. Richard Waring was awarded merit badges in Firemanship and Cooking.

Two Die As Three Cars Collide

Two persons lost their lives Sunday in a crash involving four cars on route 173 just east of Antioch. Robert G. Bruce, 24, of 265 Ida avenue, Antioch, and Denise Christophersen, 2 1/2 months of age, Collins Drive, South Beloit, Wisconsin were the two victims.

The crash was set off when lumber protruding from the rear side window of one car struck the windshield of another. Deputies said that the car with the shattered windshield struck Bruce's car in the rear, causing him to swerve into the oncoming lane and he collided head on with one driven by the baby's father, 32 year old Sydney D. Christophersen.

The baby was dead on arrival at Zion Community Hospital and Bruce died shortly after. Also injured and in fair condition was Jane Andersen, a passenger in Bruce's car. Miss Andersen's father, Donald, reported Wednesday that his daughter's condition wasn't very good. "She was worse yesterday and they haven't been able to X-ray her yet."

Ernie Vester, 62, of rural Trevor, Wis., was also slightly injured, and reported to deputies that the car whose lumber had struck his windshield was a 1955 or '56 Ford or Chevrolet with a white top and green bottom. The car did not stop.

Mrs. Irene Christophersen, mother of the baby was listed in good condition at Victory Memorial Hospital and her four-year-old twin daughters, Dorene and Debra, were treated at Victory and released. The accident took place about 6 p.m.

STOP! THE LIGHTS ARE WORKING!

Village Board Faces Law Suit; Tries To Fix Blame

Rumor Threatens Hospital Fund Drive

At a recent meeting held by the Board of Directors of Countryside Hospital, an untrue rumor was discussed. Members had heard that some people in the community were of the erroneous opinion that the building of Countryside Hospital was to be a "one man show."

The rumor that a "one man show" was behind Countryside referred to a chosen "clique," or a selected group of persons who would make a profit from the building of Countryside.

The members believed that the rumor, left unchecked, could hamper the building of Countryside Hospital. They believed it would be a sad paradox that the past activity and good work toward Countryside could be harmed by idle and untrue gossip. When the rumor was called to the attention of Dr. W. C. Petty, General Chairman of Countryside, he stated, "This is completely untrue. I would not have accepted the General Chairmanship if I had not believed it would be under the control of all people contributing to its completion. In the light of what has been written in the Constitution, I know it would be impossible for one person or a group of persons to exploit the building of Countryside for personal gain."

The Board of Directors called attention to Article II, Section 1 of the Constitution which states, "To maintain a properly equipped, and staffed, exclusively non-profit and non-sectarian general hospital, in Northwest Lake County."

They stated another reason why the hospital could not be operated by private individuals for a profit is the State of Illinois corporation charter. It states specifically that Countryside will be operated solely as a non-profit corporation.

Vision Center Opens Soon

Dr. S. L. Merel, O. D., Optometrist, formerly of the Chicago suburban area, of Downers Grove, has leased space and will open an office here soon in the former Antioch Savings & Loan Assn.

location. The new office will be known as "The Vision Center."

A native of Chicago, Dr. Merel is a 1948 graduate of The Illinois College of Optometry, and has practiced Optometry for the past 15 years in and around the Chicago area.

Dr. Merel had previously been employed by such well known Chicago optician firms as "The House of Vision," the Optical Dept's. of Sears Roebuck & Co., and Almer Coe & Co.; the latter Optician firm of which Dr. Merel was in charge of the Contact Lens Dept.

The new "Vision Center" office of Dr. Merel will be completely modern and scientifically equipped, and will feature the latest in fashionable eyewear, as well as Contact Lens fitting. Optician services also will be available.

C. C. Plans For Future

The Antioch Chamber of Commerce will hold its next general meeting Monday evening at 7 p.m. at the Antioch Scout House. It was announced last week. Notice cards were sent to all members of the chamber and an invitation has been extended to all interested parties to attend.

A full slate of business will be on the agenda for the evening session. New projects for the chamber, possible changes in the by-laws and membership, are just a few of the topics scheduled for discussion.

Officials of the organization stressed that this is an open meeting and the public is urged to attend. The Chamber has been making progress since its re-organization and many plans are being formed for future activities.

"Anyone interested in chamber activities is urged to attend," an official of the group said, "even if they just want to come down and find out what we're doing we'll be glad to see them."

Serve 3,000 Chicken Dinners at Convent

The Benedictine Sisters of the Holy Family, Convent at Benet Lake, Wis., are overwhelmed with the success of their project to raise funds—a chicken barbecue on August 25.

Sister Margaret Mary, chairman of the dinner reported that the 6 police who aided them throughout the day by directing traffic, estimated that about 6,000 people were on the grounds during the day. Three thousand dinners were served. All of the bills haven't come in yet, but the good sisters are beginning to hope that the affair will not only pay for a new well and septic tank (the object of their money-raising activities) but possibly leave a little to start a building fund.

Not only were they flooded with customers for the chicken dinners, scores of workers came from several parishes to help with the work. The Benedictine Sisters do not have the formal support of a parish.

This being their first venture into the business of serving chicken dinners, they were ill-prepared for the huge crowd. A 75-foot pit had been prepared and there was only one serving table. People stood patiently in line without grumbling, waiting for service.

"Aside from our delight at the success of our undertaking," said Sister Margaret Mary, "it was a joy to get acquainted with so many wonderful people from all the surrounding towns. We have no way to thank all the many people who made this such a success."

The village board awarded the contract for the construction of the addition to the village hall to Vos Construction Co. at its meeting last Friday night. Vos entered the low bid of $21,952.00.

Attorney Ted Larson was present at the meeting, representing the Antioch Clinic and Lillian Hand. He informed the board that unless claims for damages of his clients were satisfied he would be forced to institute suit against the George Kennedy Construction Co., the Eric Bolander Construction Co., and the Village Board of Antioch.

The complaints of both clients stemmed from work done during the construction of the new sewers in Antioch. The Clinic claimed damage as the result of the back-up of water from the sewers in the clinic basement. Mrs. Hand claimed her driveway was not properly restored after installation of the sewers.

Both George Kennedy and David Miller, village engineer, had been instructed by the board to be present at the meeting, to try to help the board determine who was at fault on various jobs which the board claims are unsatisfactory. Miller was not present. Kennedy was.

Larson said that he did not wish to bring suit if the claim could be settled out of court. The filing of a suit, he said, could well bring on a landslide of suits from other owners.

Larson said he had been unable to get any response from Kennedy, in spite of having written several letters to him. Kennedy said he had never received any letters on the subject. He denied ever discussing the matter with Larson, though Larson said that he, Kennedy and Dave Nissen had discussed the subject in Kennedy's office at his Grand Opening party.

Larson declared he was not at the board meeting to try a lawsuit, only to find out why no action had been taken. A list of the unfinished and unsatisfactory work was sent to Kennedy by David Miller, the village engineer in charge of the job. It includes:

1. Sump pump in lift station in Oakwood Knolls requires lowering so that pit can be properly drained.
2. Check hand operation of sump pump in Bridgwood Drive lift station, electrical adjustment.
3. Electrical outlet under 95 boys.

ACHS Enrollment

Antioch Community High School reports a total enrollment of 930 this year. 255 freshmen were enrolled, 127 girls and 128 boys. The sophomore class numbers 253, 123 girls and 130 boys. There are 245 juniors, 117 girls and 128 boys. The 177 seniors include 82 girls and 95 boys.

MRS. HARRISON BROWN, teacher of the afternoon session of kindergarten, will have a busy year. In addition to the Cermak triplets, she has twins Cheryl and Charles Pounders in her room. They're shown here as they entered kindergarten last week.

THE CERMAK TRIPLETS, Mary (nearest camera), Joseph and Ann, entered kindergarten last week at the Antioch Grade School. The triplets live at 911 David Street.

Don't Get Careless, Kids

Carelessness or daring in traffic is something the modern youngster can't risk. No matter how many warnings are sounded to watch out for children on their way to and from school, there is always at least one hoodless motorist who ignores the admonitions and adopts a "Let them take care of themselves" attitude.

It seems to be impossible to wipe out this type of motorist, so we can only hope to teach the children to be wary.

Our attention has been called to the fact that some of the students at Antioch Grade School are adopting a habit of crossing Main St. at any and all spots along the street, rather than at the crossing where they are protected by the presence of either a policeman or a patrol boy. It's a dangerous practice. Main St. is a state highway, and we see too many speeding cars on it, in spite of the speed limit.

Parents might do well to remind their school age children to cross at the designated crossing. It could save a life.

Crooked Cops

State Police are in the limelight again with the news of the uncovering of a racket involving kickbacks to police from operators of towing services.

Governor Kerner, appearing on television Thursday night, carefully pointed out that only the tollway services are involved. We suggest investigators look a little farther and dig a little deeper. We're sure they'll find that state police and towing operators are involved who have nothing to do with the tollway.

Coming on the heels of the scandal involving state police who accepted bribes for winking at overweight trucks, you might begin to feel all police are busily hauling in bribes. Don't forget, it takes the co-operation of a private citizen to produce a crooked cop.

Granted, we may all feel that the crooked cop, as one being paid to uphold the law, is a little worse morally than the citizen who pays him off. But don't forget we all have an obligation to obey the law, and to report to the authorities any infringement of the law of which we're aware. If we all took the trouble to do this, crooked cops couldn't survive.

When Will They Act?

Last week a young man was severely beaten in the parking lot at Slide Inn.

This is just another in the long list of unsavory occurrences at this place. It's kind of interesting to watch and see just how much it'll take to push our vigorous law-enforcement agencies into taking action against this place. How many young people have to get hurt, how badly, how long can it go on, before someone does something about it?

What finally pushed the Lake County Liquor Board into taking action against the Last Resort? Maybe the complaints of near-by residents helped. Why aren't Channel Lake residents complaining?

And why do our law-enforcement agencies have to be pushed into doing something about it? Why must a howl of outrage be raised before the agencies responsible for policing such places make any move toward cleaning them up?

Why don't they do something about it?

Along The Way

with ANNIE MAE

While the teenage Joes and Johnnies warm up on the gridiron for the opening of the All American fall sport, another group stands on a different kind of 50 yard line wondering just who's got the ball? A major developer tossed a pass at the local Antioch business arena, where it was intercepted by a star player, from an opposing team of promoters. A player wearing a jersey for the Lake County Health Dept. threw in a tackle that made it anybody's game. All eyes will be on this game, because the ball they are carrying is loaded with economic dynamite.

Courthouse Notebook

BY LOU DURKIN

Is it just a feeling of pessimism on our part or are the leaves taking on their autumn hues a little early this year signalling a long and gruesome winter?

We have yet to hear from the Waukegan fish merchant on this score, but we have indeed seen some scarlet and gold splashed here and there among the green.

And whatever happened to the new comprehensive zoning ordinance?

The proposed ordinance was treated somewhat harshly in many sectors when it was first presented last winter during a series of public hearings in each township and was eventually sent back to the county board's zoning committee and to the zoning board of appeals.

The Lake County Regional Planning Commission, which did most of the work in preparing the ordinance, compiled the many complaints and objections, prepared some recommendations, and got ready to work on the revisions which had been suggested.

To date, however, the committee has apparently forgotten about the commission and appears to be proceeding independently, if at all.

You frequently hear the charge that the county elective offices are filled with doddering old men who have been living off the poor taxpayers since the year "1," but do you realize that only three and a half county officials are now serving their second term or more?

Dean of county officials, of course, is Dr. W. C. Petty, county superintendent of schools who is in his ninth term. Second in seniority is County Judge Minard E. Hulse who was first elected in 1946.

County Clerk Garfield R. Leaf, the most versatile of the officials having served as county treasurer and coroner before moving into his present post in 1950, is next in line, followed by Coronator Robert H. (Mickey) Babcox who is in his third term.

The half belongs to State's Attorney Bruno W. Staczak, who was elected in a special midterm election and then gained a full term in 1960.

Staczak and Babcox will be up for re-election in 1964. Geographically the county officials are well scattered with Waukegan laying claim to Judge Hulse, Circuit Judges Thomas J. Moran and Glenn K. Seldentfeld, and County Clerk Leaf.

Antioch lays claim to two officials, Dr. Petty and Sheriff Charles Larson, and Lake Bluff has Circuit Judge Philip W. Yager and Circuit Clerk Stephanie Sulthill.

Probate Clerk Hugo Schneider, Jr. hails from Highland Park; County Recorder Frank J. Nustra is from Highland; County Auditor John Darrow makes his home in North Chicago; County Treasurer Karl Berning represents Deerfield, and State's Attorney Staczak is from Libertyville.

The southwest part of the county is represented among the hierarchy by County Board Chairman Robert Dickson, of Wauconda.

The political season is stretching out like the pro football season this year with four Republican parties slated for this week.

Charles Percy, candidate for governor, will be in Zion Sept. 12 to speak before the Zion-Benton Young Republicans and as many more people as he can jam into the community room of the Zion Savings and Loan Assn.

The Z-B YGOP is asking other Young GOP groups to join in welcoming Percy.

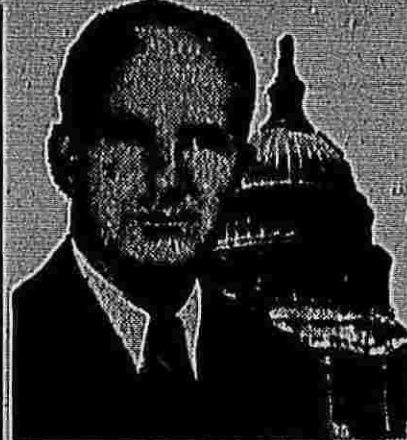

Max Wildman, of Lake Bluff, isn't an announced candidate for anything at the present time, but it is significant that he is inviting precinct committeemen from Lake, McHenry and Boone counties to a picnic barbecue at his home Saturday, Sept. 14.

It just happens that these three counties make up the 12th Congressional District and, as you may recall, Wildman finished a strong third in the Congressional primary in 1962.

His neighbor, Cong. Robert McClary, not being a precinct committeeman, probably won't attend.

On Sunday Republicans will move to Wauconda for the annual Wauconda Township Republican Club outing, an event that has apparently superseded the Grant Township Republican fall outing as the big fall event.

And, of course, GOP divots will be flying all over Blitmore Country Club, Barrington, on Sept. 18, when Cuba Supervisor Joe Welch and the Cuber Township club play host at their annual affair.

Your Congressman Reports...

By Cong. Robert McClary

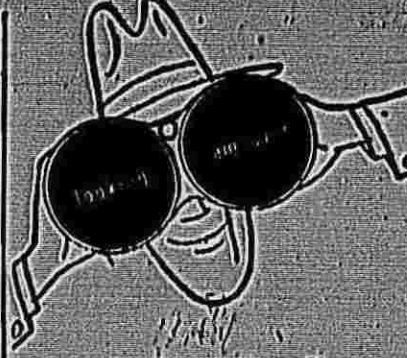

One of the most perplexing problems currently before the Congress is that of foreign aid, as embodied in the Foreign Assistance Act of 1963. This measure involves the expenditure of almost 4 billion dollars of American taxpayers' money in various military and civilian grant and loan programs. Coming before the House in late August, this issue is particularly disturbing due to the projected deficit of some 10 to 15 billion dollars, recommended by the Administration. It means that every cent appropriated for foreign aid "grants," as well as large sums described as "loans," will have to be borrowed—and repaid from taxes collected at some future time.

The various foreign aid program benefit more than 79 nations, including many new nations that were not in existence 10 years ago. Responding to the public demand for reduction in foreign aid expenditures, the House cut about 1 billion dollars from the amount requested by the President this year. Other restrictions imposed by House action limit the right of the Administration to grant foreign aid to nations who are dealing with the Communists.

One of the highly controversial issues is that of granting foreign aid to Yugoslavia and Poland. It should be pointed out that any aid to these countries would be limited to loans. As approved by the House of Representatives, the bill authorizes the president to grant "most favored nation" status to these two "communist" countries. In turn, this means that Yugoslavia and Poland may have the same opportunity—as our allies—to participate in favorable trade relations with our nation.

Very few communications which refer solely to the foreign aid programs have come to me. Nevertheless, I am quite aware that the overwhelming sentiment in our 12th Congressional District is to cast a wary eye at the entire foreign aid program.

Fortunately for the American taxpayer and the nation's economy, about 80% of the foreign aid dollars will be spent in this country. Much of this is expended in the form of agricultural surplus goods. Other aid is in the form of American products, some of which is manufactured in our 12th Congressional District, for overseas delivery. There is a relatively sharp reduction in military aid in this year's foreign aid budget. In the past, the military aid program has caused the biggest drain on our dollar reserves.

A matter of particular concern is this nation's own fiscal position. It seems entirely appropriate to inquire how foreign aid programs can be justified at a time when we are unable to meet our own federal obligations. While—at the present time—the situation may not be alarming enough to eliminate foreign aid spending entirely, it is the writer's opinion that we must soon put out fiscal house in order. Unless this step is taken firmly and permanently all forms of aid—foreign and domestic—will be eliminated by the force of economic disaster.

We've heard a few ripples of discontent — well, they were a little more than ripples—from various sections of Antioch lately where dogs allegedly disturbed the peace of home-owners. (Please note that we say "allegedly." This is an excellent journalistic dodge which means, "I don't want to be in the middle.")

LUCILE EBERMAN, school secretary at Channel Lake School, looks over some of the books in the library which was ramplanned from the former lunch room at the school.

Kennedy asked, "What's the matter with it?" Roger Williams said it was full of holes. In other business, David Nissen presented a petition for a building permit for a two-family dwelling at Highland and North Ave. The permit was deferred pending further study.

The board voted to notify the owners of the Tiffany Arms that no more families should be allowed to move in to the apartments until proof that sufficient parking space was available was presented to the board.

The board also voted to send a letter of objection to the County Zoning Board on the matter of the zoning for business of the tract of land at Grass Lake Road and 59 on which the owners propose to build a shopping plaza.

However, we can give you the gist of the ordinance. It's a tough one. If enforced, dogs would have to be inoculated for rabies, licensed, kept on a leash at all times, and speak only when spoken to—and then quietly. If anyone wishes to read it in full, we're sure Clarence will let you read it at the Village Hall.

Awana Club Starts Season

The Awana Youth Club of Antioch will begin their new season with the girls meeting on Friday evening, September 13, and the boys on Monday evening, Sept. 16, from 7 to 9 p.m. at the Antioch Evangelical Free Church, Tiffany Rd.

A-W-A-N-A stands for Approved Workmen Are Not Ashamed, taken from 1 Tim. 2:15.

The Antioch Awana Club is one of many in the Chicago area and there are many Olympic team meets between the different clubs, where team co-operation and competition is emphasized.

The Awana Club is especially planned for boys and girls from ages 8 through 13. The evening begins with the flag ceremony and prayer, then 45 minutes of enthusiastic, athletic type games; relay races, bean bag grab, etc., played team against team. After games the boys and girls go to their "huddles" for recitation of their entrance tests and handbooks to their leaders. Then there is singing, announcements for special events, sword drills, Bible quizzes and devotion time.

When the boys and girls have passed their entrance tests they are entitled to purchase their club uniform, which is a shirt or blouse, on which they put their badges and achievement bars and charms.

All boys and girls are cordially invited to attend.

Boaters Keep Busy

The average boat owner seems busier than an aardvark on an ant farm.

When he's not out with his boat, he might well be found playing golf, tinkering with his car or bowling.

This was discovered in a series of market research studies by the Outboard Boating Club of America. The studies were undertaken to find out who bought boating equipment and why. In the course of the research work, many other facts about the boat buyer's personality came to light.

Mr. Average Boater is strictly a doer. According to the surveys, the boat owner is more likely to be playing baseball than watching it on TV. In fact, he does more of just about everything than the man without a boat. The reports showed that he hunted, fished, swam, golfed and bowled more often than his boatless cousin. In addition, he found time to do more gardening, picnicking, pleasure driving and working around the house than his counterpart without a boat.

At first glance, you might think the boater was a bundle of nervous energy who must be doing something at every moment.

Not so, say the researchers. The boater can do his relaxing during periods of sedentary activity, such as cruising or fishing.

Researchers were quick to point out that taking up boating doesn't make the man suddenly take up other sports, too. Rather, boating appeals, in general, to people who like participant sports. This seems to be a reflection of the boater's personality—well-rounded, outgoing and fun-loving, but unsatisfied with only one form of recreation.

How does the non-boater spend his leisure time? The studies indicate that a good bit of it is probably spent watching TV.

At a party celebration in Leningrad, a guest discovered a piece of rubber tire in his soup. He was on the verge of dipping it out of the bowl onto the plate but he noticed a secret policeman watching him. He smiled at him and said with enthusiasm, "Well, our optimistic plans are working out. After only 35 years in power, the automobile is replacing the horse."

Wed at St. Peter's Church August 31

Dolores C. Brackman, daughter of John Brackman, Sr., of Rt. 1, Antioch, became the bride of Frank J. Huss of Rt. 4, Antioch, in a 3 p.m. wedding at St. Peter's Church in Antioch on Saturday, August 31.

The Rev. Father Lawrence Hanley performed the double-ring marriage ceremony. The bride was given away by her father.

The bodice of the bride's gown was of Chantilly lace, with a sequin-trimmed oval neckline and long sleeves. The dome skirt of silk organza over taffeta was trimmed with lace and sequins, with a chapel train. The finger-tip veil was held by a heart-shaped crown trimmed with sequins. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations and stephanotis, with one white orchid.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Joan Nelson, sister of the bride, wore a sheath of lilac nylon over taffeta in a street length. She wore a matching pillbox with blusher veil, and carried a colonial bouquet of mixed maize and lilac carnations. The bridesmaids, Joan Cervenk and Miss Elaine Oza (the groom's niece), wore sheaths of the same color and style as the matron of honor.

The junior bridesmaids were Nancy Brackman, Darlene Brackman, and Patricia Brackman, all nieces of the bride. They wore street-length dresses of maize nylon over taffeta with 3/4 length sleeves and full skirts. Matching pillbox hats held blusher veils. Their bouquets were the same as the bridesmaids'.

A reception for 200 guests was held at the Lindenhurst Civic Center, and the couple took a honeymoon trip to northern Wisconsin. They will be at home after Sept. 8.

The bride is a graduate of Antioch Community High School and is employed at the State Bank of Antioch. The groom is employed at Ted's State Line Service.

Rich Colors in Fall Fashions For Women

URBANA — Rich, elegant colorings and the "country look" will set the pace in women's fashions this fall, reports Esther Siemen, University of Illinois extension textiles and clothing specialist.

According to an advance report, colors will be slightly deeper than they were a year ago.

Gray will be strong alone and as a mixture color in tweeds. Too, gray will appear in a range of new pale to medium-toned colored neutrals. Grayed heathers of sandringham blue, haze green, tapestry rose and smoke are soft and subtle.

The top shade in the blue family is mallard, a rich greened-blue. Duck, its brighter counterpart, is seen as an accent color.

In the red family, the blued-reds of cranberry and bordeaux are fashion favorites. The preferred young red is a classic, blazing shade. A deep purple-red is outstanding paired with green (brown-green). Plum and purple are mentioned for high fashion only.

Newest browns reflect a redder than usual cast in forest tones. Although camel will not disappear from the fashion picture, vicamel, a warm medium brown, will be the newer, slightly darker replacement. Clear bitter gold adds a bright accent.

Miss Siemen points out that "country prints," the "tapestry look," madras and India prints are expected to dominate the fabric design picture.

Counrty-style prints highlight numerous calico and other small designs of all-over clustered miniature wildflowers on parchment (beige), dark neutral or black grounds. American heritage designs recall motifs that are traditionally associated with colonial government, inns, sailing and farming.

The "tapestry look" is based on replicas of 18th and 19th century tapestries, damask and upholstery. These designs incorporate scrollwork, pastoral scenes and foliage.

The India prints are ancient, intricate patterns of ornamental floral and paisley motifs. Primitive hand-blocked batik effects in complex stripe and geometric arrangements are also prominent.

Inside Antioch High

By Marilyn Gras

Well, the days of summer have flown by, and school is again in session at Antioch. The building has changed very little over the summer, but it now has a new name. On July 1st, AHS became ACHS, Antioch Community High School. The school board made the change because the school district actually lies in several different townships.

But, even though the school year is new, students have been busy. The football and cross country teams have been practicing for several weeks already. Varsity football coaches this year are Mr. Nelson and Mr. Erdmann. Mr. Risberg is the Sophomore coach, and Mr. Allen and Mr. Stockhecke are coaching the Freshman team. Mr. Foster is the only cross country coach.

Last Saturday, eleven Antioch students were screened for the Channel 5 program "It's Academic." Of these eleven, six were chosen to train for the show. They are Stanley Sutherland, Shirley Reichenbach, Judy Stoffel, John Anderson, Norbert Wolter, and Jerry Berke.

Saturday morning the Senior Band served as the clinic band at the Lake County Music Workshop. Dr. James Nielsen, former Director of Bands at Oklahoma State University, used the band to demonstrate rehearsal techniques to the band directors. The workshop is held each year to help music instructors compare and improve their teaching methods.

This weekend yearbook and newspaper editors are planning to attend a convention at the University of Illinois in Champaign-Urbana. The editors and their faculty sponsors will leave early Friday morning and return Saturday evening.

The new books will be helpful to each girl in her own age-level as well as being a book to grow-on, planned to provide progression in program, making use of a girl's past experiences and building toward future ones.

"A mark of distinction will be provided for all the handbooks sold during the week of September 9-14," said Mrs. George Sedivec, Neighborhood chairman. "It is a bookplate certifying that the owner of the book purchased her first edition during the first week of sale. This will make each girl's handbook an especially treasured keepsake."

Scout News

The Girl Scout shop in MariAnne's will provide the setting for a "Handbooks Are Here" celebration, launching the sale of four completely new Girl Scout Handbooks. The handbooks correspond to the four new age levels in Girl Scouting: Brownie Girl Scouts (ages 7 and 8), Junior Girl Scouts (ages 9, 10, 11), Cadette Girl Scouts (ages 12, 13, 14), and Senior Girl Scouts (ages 15, 16, 17).

All handbooks purchased this week will contain book plates indicating that they were acquired during the first week of sale. Commenting on the cost of the books, at one dollar per copy, Mrs. W. H. McCleod, Council President, said: "We are extremely happy that the Girl Scout organization is able to offer these beautiful books at a price most girls can afford. Trade books of the same quality would sell for much more. Many of the girls in our council have themselves earned the money to buy their new handbooks."

Mrs. McCleod went on to explain that the four books represent successive stages in one continuous program for girls aged from 7 to 17. Each was produced by a team of specialists, including a Girl Scout program adviser, a writer, a designer, and an illustrator—experts in the age level for which their book was intended. The teams incorporated into the books ideas which came from Girl Scouts all over the country. As a result, the books are packed with facts, how-to-do-it information and ideas for projects encompassing every aspect of activity in the arts, the home, and the out-of-doors.

"The books are so well written and so beautifully illustrated," Mrs. George Sedman, said, "that I'm afraid the girls will run a risk in bringing them home. Once parents start reading these books, they may get so interested that the girls will have a hard time getting them back."

The books went on sale Monday, Sept. 9, throughout the entire country.

A special handbookmobile will be at the Linden Plaza Shopping Center on Saturday, September 14 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. The Lakeview Girl Scout Council is using this method to reach the more than 3,000 Girl Scouts in its jurisdiction with the new Girl Scout Handbooks. The handbookmobile will be manned by Mrs. Esther Sokup, Mrs. Helen Myslinski and Mrs. Richard Wells, all Girl Scout Leaders from the Lindenhurst area. These leaders will have their balloon bedecked station wagon filled with the four new Girl Scout handbooks.

The new books will be helpful to each girl in her own age-level as well as being a book to grow-on, planned to provide progression in program, making use of a girl's past experiences and building toward future ones.

"A mark of distinction will be provided for all the handbooks sold during the week of September 9-14," said Mrs. George Sedivec, Neighborhood chairman. "It is a bookplate certifying that the owner of the book purchased her first edition during the first week of sale. This will make each girl's handbook an especially treasured keepsake."

ALL ABOUT BABIES

A Public Service of the National Baby Care Council
BABY CARE Q. AND A.—
By G. Robert Gruver
Editor
All About Babies

There are usually a million and one questions the new mother has about her first baby. At one time she put these questions to her mother, her grandmother or an aunt who came to visit. Today, the new mother, living in the suburbs, usually at some distance from her family, turns elsewhere for the answers. The best source of information is her family doctor. The visiting nurse in her community can offer sound advice.

The nation's diaper service industry trains its routemen and route women to answer most of these questions, except those that have to do with medical advice. Here are some asked most often by new mothers:

Q. How fast do babies grow?
A. About six to 12 inches the first year.

Q. When will baby really smile?
A. When he's four to six weeks old.

Q. Will picking up baby when he cries spoil him?
A. Many child psychologists say, no. Don't be alarmed or run pell mell every time baby whimpers. Simply check for any real reasons for crying and be as gentle as possible.

Q. Should I change the diaper during the night when baby's asleep?
A. Professional diaper services impregnate the diapers they process with a chemical that inhibits the breakdown of urine into skin-irritating ammonia for at least six hours. Thus protected, it is wiser not to disturb baby as long as he's sleeping.

Q. Is it normal for the eyes of a newborn baby to quiver and the eyelids to twitch?

A. Both are perfectly normal for the first week or until baby's eyes develop more.

Q. When will baby sit up?
A. As soon as baby's back muscles develop sufficiently and he has enough control over them.

Q. When will baby cut his first tooth?
A. It varies but usually between the sixth and seventh month.

Q. Is it always necessary to burp baby?
A. You should during the first few weeks, once during feeding and again at the end.

Q. How can I be sure baby's bottle is the correct temperature?
A. An old reliable method is to test a few drops of milk on your wrist to be sure it is not too hot. Some doctors are now recommending cold-milk feedings.

Q. How much sleep does baby need?
A. During the first month most babies will sleep between 18 and 20 hours a day.

Q. When will baby really smile?

A. When he's four to six weeks old.

Q. Will picking up baby when he cries spoil him?

There were only 2 extra base hits for Ray's Tap, a double by Jack Christiansen in the first inning and the game-winning home run by Jim Krueger in the ninth.

P. Breski, Jr. collected 2 singles in three trips and Rich Weir had one single in 3 trips for Pine Oak.

Boating's Safety Record; More Boats, Fewer Accidents

The Nation's boatmen are on the market for an extra-large cocked-hat—one into which they can knock all those fears of an increasing boating accident rate.

The U. S. Coast Guard report on boating activities during 1962 has laid to rest the fears of all the hand-wringers who were sure that boating's increased popularity must inevitably be accompanied by a soaring number of mishaps.

Fatal boating accidents plunged 8.5 per cent in 1962, while the number of pleasure craft registered climbed 13.9 per cent.

The number of boating deaths dropped 104, from 1,218 in 1961 to 1,114 in 1962. The number of registered pleasure craft went from 3,085,732 in 1961 to 3,516,052 in 1962.

Total number of accidents reported dropped 4.4 per cent in 1962, while property damage sank 8 per cent from $4,378,000 in 1961 to $4,028,700 during 1962.

Guy W. Hughes, executive director of the Outboard Boating Club of America, said that the report reinforced the OBC thesis that the increase in boating's popularity since the mid-50's has brought no soaring accident rate in its wake.

"Information from the National Office of Vital Statistics over the last decade has shown no increase in the number of boating deaths—the number of such tragedies has remained fairly constant each year; in the same period, the nation's recreational fleet has increased several fold," Hughes said.

According to the Coast Guard analysis, the most common cause of fatal boating accidents was operator fault—situations where the operator was predominately at fault such as over or improper loading, excessive speed, unsafe fueling practices and violation of the rules of the road.

"This also tends to confirm our own studies about the nature of boating accidents," Hughes said. "As a result, the most promising area for future work in making boating safer lies in intensified educational efforts aimed at reminding boatmen of elementary rules of boat handling," Hughes maintained.

"The decline reported by the Coast Guard indicates that educational efforts by the industry, private boating organizations and government agencies are paying off," Hughes said. "But that's no reason for resting on our oars. If everyone with an interest in building this fine sport works together, we can look forward to an even better safety record for 1963."

Where Else?

A man went to see a psychiatrist to be cured of his habit of collecting spaghetti. He told the doctor that the spaghetti was cluttering up his living room.

"Why don't you put it in the closet?" asked the psychiatrist.

"I can't do that," was the indignant reply. "That's where I keep my meatballs."

Proper Care Keeps Trailers Rolling

There are some 3,200,000 boat trailers whizzing along the nation's highways today, sturdy vehicles that enable everything from light fishing craft to big cabin boats to cruise the highways as well as the waterways.

Proper care of your boat trailer will keep it rolling along for years, say engineering committees of the Outboard Boating Club of America.

If at all possible, avoid submerging your trailer's hubs when loading or launching a boat.

If hubs are submerged, be sure to repack the wheel bearings with grease as soon as convenient. Water dilutes the effectiveness of the lubricant and (especially salt water) rusts and pits the bearings.

Don't make the mistake of installing a grease fitting on your hubs so you can repack the bearings with a pressure grease gun; the pressure from the gun will blow out the grease seal, which has the important job of keeping the grease in and water and dirt out. It also keeps grease off the trailer brake linings—and grease on your brake linings means trouble!

Submerging your hubs may also affect the brakes adversely—be sure to try a few test stops if your hubs have been in the water.

Some other tips on trailer care:

—Make sure the hitch is tight.

—Check safety chains, electrical and brake connections.

—Inflate the tire to recommended capacity; it's a good idea to carry a spare tire and a suitable jack, just as you would your auto.

—Evenly distribute luggage or equipment carried aboard the trailered boat, and secure the outboard motor tightly on the transom.

—Make periodic inspections of lights and brakes to insure that they are operating properly.

Modern Living In Doll House

Some little girl is going to become the owner of a dream house when Modern Living has a drawing for the doll house now on display in its window.

The drawing will be September 21, at Modern Living, on the corner of Route 173 and 59. No purchase is necessary to go in and register for the doll house.

The seven-room, metal doll house is completely furnished with plastic furniture, dishes, and a nursery complete with a baby—not a real one, of course.

The floors are richly carpeted. The house is two-story, about 4 feet long and eighteen inches high. Awnings are at the windows, and in front of the house, miniature playground equipment—complete with small figures—finishes the scene.

Modern Living is giving away the doll house as part of a promotion of their new fall lines of rugs and carpeting. You can look over the latest in rugs and register for the doll house at the same time.

Proper Equipment For Boating
Proper equipment is the key to safe and enjoyable boating, experts agree. Here's what your craft should have: Outboards under 10 feet must carry a Coast Guard approved lifesaving device for every person aboard, proper lights and, if of closed construction, a fire extinguisher; motorboats up to 26 feet long must carry in addition a whistle or horn audible for at least 1/2 mile; although not required by law, experienced boatmen also recommend that pleasure boats carry a compass, anchor, flashlight, line, gasoline can, bilge pump, first aid kit, paddle, tool kit and fenders.

Sequoits Play Salem In Opener Friday

The Antioch High School varsity football team will open its 1963 season Friday night against the Salem Falcons at Salem, Wis. Salem replaces Wilmet on the schedule this year.

Coach Roy Nelson had an opportunity to see the Falcons in action as they played Elkhorn last Friday, dropping a 19 to 14 decision. "They work from an unbalanced T," Nelson said, "and have a good size in the line. They played a very good second half Friday, coming back from a 13-0 deficit. They have real good speed in the backfield," Nelson added. "Most of their talent comes from last year's soph-a-real and we can expect a real good second half game."

Rich Mason, junior at right tackle. Bill Alm, a senior, will hold down the right end spot.

Seniors John Lear and Jeff Gates will be at quarterback and halfback respectively. Aiding them will be juniors John Morgan and Paul Lindblad at halfback and fullback.

Taking over in the backfield defensively will be Terry Schneider and Wally Henning, both juniors, and senior Jeff Gates. Paul Williams will probably see action

Stillman Wins Final at Wilmet

Eddie Stillman of Milwaukee repeated here Saturday night as 1963 Modified Stock Car Champion and won the most money he has ever made on a single night of racing. From the $1000 lap prize fund for the 100 lap race, Stillman won $920.

This was without counting the purse money of $2952, amounting the lap prize money. Stillman took the lap on lap nine and held it from then to lap 100. He had set fast time in time trials, averaging 50.25 mph and started in the back of the 20 car starting field. His speed in winning the 100 lap race was 53.76 mph, a new track record. He also won his 10 lap race scoring the first sweep of the program at the track.

Ted Schuster of Zion started out in the lead of the feature but lost it to Sullivan of Antioch on lap 5. Schuster was in a strange car. Following the sidelining of his car after hitting the fence in time trials. Bill Shoulders of Waukegan, Jr. Dodd, Waukegan; and Bill Moore were the hard luck drivers in the feature. Shoulders had worked his way into the number two spot before going out on lap 59. Moore was the only upset victim as he rolled over in the first turn. The race was stopped and Bill was O.K., but the car was damaged and he was unable to continue. Earlier, Jr. Dodd lost control and busted the fence and was out. When the race was halted by Moore's roll over, he was able to get back in but lost too much time in the fence.

The heats were won by Stillman; Bill Strom of Milwaukee; and Herman Seamans. The semi went to Bill Strom.

The spectator car races went to Bill Robis of Antioch; Will Winchester of Kenosha and Jim Crossman of Round Lake. Dick Aissen of McHenry hung onto his point

Wisconsin Vs. Illinois Drivers at Speedway

Johnny Reimer took a thriller at New Waukegan Speedway Sunday afternoon when he grabbed the lead on the final lap of a 30-lap feature to nose out Dick VanDer Spoel of Gurnee. It looked like on Illinois win until the last 130 yards when the Wisconsin pilot came off corner No. 4 on the outside to win. Finishing third was Roger Otto of Burlington with Eddie Stillman, 4th; Bill Moore, 5th, and Fran Seamars, Milwaukee, over the line 6th. Time was 9:17:82.

Junior Dodd of Waukegan grabbed the semi-feature for Modifieds with Jimmy Bozeman and Gregory Umek of North Chicago across third. Time on this one was 4:40:00.

Bill Shoulders and Gordon Gorman, both of Libertyville, were running second and third when they tangled on the final lap and lost their spots.

Dennis Burgan of Zion snapped up the tender-bond feature ahead of Bob Dugan of Waukegan and Hal Gutche of Kenosha. A 22-car field started in this one and only nine were left running as the checkered flag fell. Time 5:28:30.

In the Modified heats it was Dodd, Bozeman and Umek, 1st heat; 3:01:04. The second heat it was Otto, Shoulders and Uttech in 2:50:48. Third heat was: Ed Stillman, Fran Seamars and Bill Moore in 3:00:78. Fourth heat went to Bay Darnell, Ansell and Dick VanDerSpoel. Time 3:04:59. The tender heats went to Burgan and O'Dell Jones.

Next Sunday afternoon, Sept. 15, Promoters Bob Karry and Gordon Sill will present a super-thriller with champions from the Wisconsin tracks against the top contenders from Illinois. At present, Don Sorce of Milwaukee is the point leader at New Waukegan Speedway with Ed Stillman second and John Roemer, third. Gerald Houvenor, of Great Lakes, took the "Beat Your Neighbor" event.

Darts Play Sponsors

The Antioch Darts, girl's softball team, met their sponsors (men) in a game in which enthusiasm seemed to be the outstanding quality of both teams.

No one attempted to keep track of the number of errors committed—fortunately. With the score tied in the ninth inning, Stu Olson won the game for the sponsors by squeezing a home run out of a series of errors by members of the Darts.

The final score was 15-14. Sis Gallagher was the starting pitcher for the Darts, with Jan Hassett taking over in the fifth inning. Catcher Diane Masopust went the route for the girls.

Don Pittman started on the pitcher's mound for the Nameless Nine. Bill Murphy took over his job in the 6th inning. Stu Olson caught for the sponsors—loosely speaking.

The Antioch Darts are in second place in the Girl's Softball League as the season ends. First place was taken by the Lake Villa Checkers, third place by the Lake Villa Teens, and Bob's Babes, of Antioch, hold the cellar position.

BOATING WITH BOWMAN

By Hank Bowman
(Courtesy Sequoit Harbor)

NEGLECT KILLS BOAT PERFORMANCE

The other night I was at a local marine dealer's, talking shop. A young fellow came in who had bought a boat and motor from the dealer earlier this season.

The customer was full of complaints.

His boat was handling badly. The motor no longer had any pep. He hinted strongly that the dealer had sold him a lemon.

The dealer suggested that the disappointed boat owner leave the rig and he would check it over.

One look at the outfit told Neglect.

The motor's lower unit was covered with corrosion. The skeg was bent and nicked. The propeller had obviously been aground more than once.

The boat gave the appearance of having been tossed casually onto the trailer with no effort made to make the rollers and the pads match the boat's contours.

Distortions and bad bottom gouges were in evidence through the thick collection of marine growth.

My dealer friend pulled one of the spark plugs at random. The electrodes looked as though they were coated with cooked taffy.

The owner had operated the motor without its cowl-ing. The powerhead was as covered with corrosion and fuel residue as the aft end of the boat. The exposed carburetor filter bowl was three-quarters full of sediment and water. Battery terminals were coated with corrosion.

The performance of the outfit hadn't died. The owner had killed it.

About this time of year less fortunate boat owners in northern states are moving toward the end of their active boating season. Elsewhere luckier boatmen will be able to continue to run their rigs all year long. Regardless of which group you fall into, it might be a good idea to take inventory of your own maintenance habits.

What's the condition of your propeller? If it's nicked and bent, you'll be losing performance, wasting fuel and the vibrations set up by an out-of-balance prop can cause expensive-to-repair damage to bearings and rotating and reciprocating parts.

It might be a good time to invest in a new wheel and have your dealer recondition your battered prop for use as a spare.

Marine growth on hull bottoms should be scraped off, then the bottoms should be scrubbed with steel wool and detergent powder. Regardless of material of construction, all boats will collect bottom growth.

Periodic maintenance of both boat and motor will save the need of an all-out spring or fall refurbishing. If you keep after your boating equipment regularly, a complete refitting will never be required.
